

LGBTQ art shows are lighting up museums from Boston to Berlin

Activism, innovation and intimacy star in these 15 queer-themed exhibits on display around the world.

Wardell Milan: Amerika. God Bless You If It's Good To You

Bronx Museum / New York

In the first section of this powerful two-part exhibition, Tennessee-born and Harlem-based artist Wardell Milan uses new works on paper to explore the subtle normalization of white supremacy and racial violence in America. The show's second portion uses a site-specific structure – along with performances choreographed by Zachary Tye Richardson and sculptures designed by Billy Ray Morgan – to explore the concept of “safe space” for marginalized communities. Through Oct. 24

